

FISCAL NOTE

HB 169 - SB 703

February 26, 2001

SUMMARY OF BILL: Provides for guidelines on whom shall have the power to decide how a dead human body shall be disposed. Gives each person the power to specify his/her own preference before death, either by executing a written instrument according to the form provided in the bill, or by stating such preference clearly in some other binding document such as a will or a prepaid funeral contract. In the event that a person does not state his/her preference, the bill establishes priorities among the surviving relatives.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.

James A. Davenport, Executive Director

HB 169 - SB 703